

Transforming health and care systems in the South East for future sustainability

A regional summit hosted by the South East Clinical Senate

Wednesday 20th April 2016

Lingfield Park Racecourse, Lingfield Surrey RH7 6PQ

From 9.30	Registration Refreshments available on arrival
10:00	Chair's Welcome, aims for the day and context setting Lawrence Goldberg, Chair, South East Clinical Senate
10.10	Key note address: Place based and integrated care: a national overview Richard Murray, Director of Policy, Kings Fund
10.40	New models of care in the South: an overview and update Jane McVea, Senior Strategic Account Manager (London and South), New Care Models Programme
10:50	Lessons from a developing integrated care organisation vanguard South Devon and Torbay, The 'JoinedUp' Integrated Care Organisation (ICO) Caroline Taylor, Director of Adult Services, Torbay Council
11.20	Panel Questions & Answers Questions for the speakers and comments from delegates
11.40	Refreshments
12.10	Morning workshops: sustainability and transformation plans group work Facilitated discussions, in the three sustainability and transformation plan footprint- based groups (Surrey Heartlands, Sussex and East Surrey, Kent and Medway), developing relationships, testing the evolving plans and building consensus
13.15	Lunch and examples of service transformation activities in Kent, Surrey and Sussex - a poster exhibition.
14.15	The 'sustainability' in sustainability and transformation plans Caroline Jessel, Lead for Clinical Transformation, Outcomes, Sustainability and Health, South Region, NHS England (South)
14.25	Digital and new technology enabling integrated working Cathy Francis, Regional Director, Digital Technology and Information, NHS England (South)
14.35	Specialised commissioning in relation to sustainability and transformation planning Vaughan Lewis, Clinical Director Specialised Commissioning, NHS England (South)
14.45	Devolution – opportunities and implications for health and social care systems Devolution in Kent. Roger Gough, Chair, Kent Health and Wellbeing Board Devolution in Surrey and Sussex. Helyn Clack, Co-Chair, Surrey Health and Wellbeing Board
15.15	Panel Questions & Answers Questions for the speakers and comments from delegates
15.45	Conclusions from the day, and Chair's closing remarks
16.00	Close